

Public Transit Conference

2009 Louisiana Public Transit Conference

December 1–3, 2009

The Shreveport Convention Center
400 Caddo Street
Shreveport, LA 71101

The 2009 Louisiana Public Transit Conference will bring together transit agencies, planners, local elected officials, state agency representatives, transit operators and other transit stakeholders for three days of transit updates, networking with peers and hearing the latest about the American Recovery & Reinvestment Act (ARRA).

Conference sessions will cover a variety of topics, including rural transit and elderly and disable application review, transit updates, federal and state procurement procedures, safety and security, new freedoms and job access reverse commute application review, roundtable discussions, dealing with difficult people and much more.

Attendees will have plenty of opportunities for training during the welcome address, roundtables, panel discussions, breakout sessions and reception offered during the event.

Also occurring during the conference will be the Louisiana Public Transit Association (LPTA) luncheon and business meeting. This business meeting is open to all conference attendees.

Sponsors of the conference include: Federal Transit Administration and the Louisiana Public Transit Association.

Additional sponsor and exhibitor opportunities are still available.

Contact the Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development Public Transit Section at (225) 274-4302 or publictransportation@dotd.la.gov for more information.
